

INDEX

Introduction	pag. 7
1. What does Storytelling mean for youngsters?	» 7
2. Storytelling for second/foreign language teaching and learning	» 8
3. Storytelling for emotional, and social skills development	» 10
4. Storytelling to develop heritage and cultural awareness	» 12
5. How do children and youngsters use Storytelling?	» 13
6. To sum up the story... and begin	» 19
 1. Children and Storytelling	 » 21
1.1. Egan's conception of education	» 22
1.2. Children's oral culture according to Egan	» 25
1.3. Foundation for L2 Literacy	» 28
1.4. The folktale according to Propp	» 31
1.5. Theoretical foundations of Storytelling in second language acquisition	» 33
1.6. The Intercultural Approach	» 38
 2. Storytelling for L2/FL teaching	 » 45
2.1. Narrative as a cognitive framework	» 45
2.2. Applying Storytelling in an L2 classroom	» 53
2.3. Assessing learning through Storytelling	» 68
2.4. Practical applications of Storytelling in L2/FL classrooms	» 69
2.5. Further development	» 75
 3. Narrative structures for story creation: Guidelines for analysis	 » 77
3.1. The Storymakers: teachers teaching EFL with stories	» 77
3.2. Narrative structures for story creation	» 83

3.3. How to structure a story to engage and be credible for kids and youngsters	pag.	84
3.4. Guidelines for analysis	»	89
4. Assessment of the stories	»	93
4.1. Types of assessment and activities for assessment	»	95
4.2. Classroom didactics in relation to the assessment of the Stories	»	100
5. Case studies	»	103
5.1. The story and the pre-reading, while-reading and post-reading activities	»	103
5.2. Translating the story for educational purposes	»	106
5.3. Analysis of students stories linked to a COIL project	»	112
Conclusions	»	117
1. Storytelling as a cognitive framework	»	117
2. Narrative structures	»	120
3. Assessment	»	121
4. Case studies	»	121
5. Storytelling, affective dimension, language instruction	»	122
6. Benefits of Storytelling in language acquisition	»	123
References	»	125
Author Index	»	135